TELEGRAPHED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

THE HON. C. L. VALLANDIGHAM. is still at Shelbyville, and while he is an exile, and confident of kind treatment and Southern Contederacy is solely tolerated by the generous consent of the Govern-ment and people, until he can return home astery. He is consident that his character is well enough forwar assetty all that he is incapable to do any harm, by any word or act while here, or on his return to Ohio, inconsistent with the relations he sustains towards the South, during his sojourn

The report of Mrs. Vallandigham's insanity is a fabrication. She wrote her husband a week ago not to deviate from the high path of duty his honor and patriotism has led him in.

Vallandigham, after the sentence, was kept in close confinement, and only Ro. dier received him, to whom he made the sencrantza' staff officers were allowed to communicate with him.

prevalent in the Northwest country, and therefore surrender myself to you as a pristhat they are ripe to throw off Lincoln's oner of war." hated yoke.

FROM THE UNITED STATES. RICHMOND, May 31 .- Northern dates to the 28th have been received here, from which we extract the following :

The last official news from Vicksburg was to 4 o'clock on the morning of the 24th. Vicksburg was then holding out, but Grant was hopeful of success. The number of troops in Vicksburg from twenty five to thirty thousand. The city is full of women and children not only of the original inhabitants but others have come in for safety from the 27th says it is reported from rebel sources that the capture of Helena was false.

In a council of war at the White-house on the 26th, a reference to offensive movements of the rebels in Virginia was made. and that they have been for some time threatening Hooker, and he expressed the opinion that the rebels are bringing up forces from Charleston and North Carolina to make an aggressive movement. In view, however, it is publicly given that these threats seem only for the design to provide for the defence of Richmond, and to deter Hooker from making another immediate advance.

A riot occurred at Harrisburg on Monday night between some negroes and whites. The cause is thought to be the dissatisfaction of the soldiers in the delay of their payment.

The Pennsylvania regiments have returned to Harrisburg from the war.

Gov. Curtin left for Washington on the 27th to consult with the President in reference to the protection of the State against invasion. Gold closed at 144.

FROM THE MISSISSIPPI. Jackson, May 25 -Com. Brown sunk four boats in Yazoo River, which blockaded it, saving all the others. The Federals have been so severely punished in their different assaults upon Vicksburg that they have fallen back and gone to fortifying. Their numerous dead still lie on the field. and the stench is awful. Their loss is variously estimated at from 10,000 to 25,000

They are reported to be hauling seige guns from Snyder's Bluff.

They told their troops that Richmond was taken, and that all they had to do was take Vicksburg and end the war. They vere shelling this morning.

MOBILE, May 29 .- A special despatch from the reporter of the Mobile Advertiser & Register, at Jackson, says that the enemy retired from the immediate front of our tortifications at Vicksburg, and is reported to be fortifying. Want of water will force him back to Big Black.

Gen. Wirt Adams had a spirited skifmish on the Yazoo with the enemy, killing and wounding some 20 Yankees.

GREAT MASS MEETING AT INDIA-

SHELDTVILLE, May 28.—The Cincinnati

Enquirer, of the 22d, has been received. The Indiana Democratic Convention met at Indianapolis on the 20th inst. Seven thousand five hundred persons were present at the meeting.

Regiments of infantry and batteries of artillery encircled the place of meeting, and nobody was allowed to enter within the circle without a special permit.

Voorhees, the President of the Couvention, made the boldest speech yet delivered in the United States against the Lincoln Administration. Resolutions were passed declaring that all power is inherent in the people; that the military power is strictly subordinate to the civil; that the Constitution has enacted that Congress can make ne law abridging the freedom of speech and the press, and the right of assembling to discuss the acts of their public servants; that the day has arrived when public servants are getting themselves above their employees; that they have two wars on their hands one on the part of CHATTANOOGA, May 29 .- Vallandigham | the rebels, and the other on the part of the Constitution, and that those Northerners upbolding it assist Vallandighum for the consideration from generous and hospita- exercise of his right of free discussion; ble people, he desires to avoid all public that the illegal acts of the administration appearance and demonstration. He lives have been received by the Indiana Democman, and is fully sensible that he is an that the first and most sacred right of citialien enemy, and that his residence in the gene has been stricken down in the dispersion of citizens; and that the Indiana Democracy will stand by Vallandigham in his defence of the sacred rights of the Con-situation and freedom.

C. L. VALLANDIGHAM. MURPRERSBORO', May . 25, 1863 .- C. L. Vallandigham was received here on an extra train from Nashville, between ten and and eleven o'clock last night. After some hours' convergation with General Resencrantz and others, he was put in an open spring wagon, and escorted by a squadron of cavalry to the outposts, and at nine A. M., to-day, was delivered into the hands of the authorities. A single private solfollowing declaration :- "I am a citizen of the State of Chio and of the United States. He states, in disgust, the dissatisfaction I am here by force, and against my will, I

ANOTHER PAPER MILL BURNED .- On Monday night last, the paper mill formerly known as Dunham's mill, located about five miles from this town, was destroyed by fire, the result, it is supposed, of spontaneous combustion among the rage. The mill was employed by Messra: J. W. Grady & Co., was used by them in the manufacture of writing and other sized papers. To the lessees this has preven a serious loss, and will result in much inconvenience to the country, as a large proportion of the writing paper used in the Confederate States, by the people and the Government, was manufactured at these mills. Owing A dispatch from Cincinnati dated the to these circumstances, the loss cannot be 27th says it is reported from rebel sources stated in dollars and conts; it is a public calamity. the mill will shortly be in operation again, and that the large contracts which Mesers. Grady & Co. were engaged in working on, sequently filled. 31 flasts upon a 201 .

[Greenville Patriot and Mountainser.

More Spotts .- Gen. Imboden, on his return from his expedition to Northwestern Virginia, captured at Summersville, in Nicholas county, forty prisoners, two hundred mules, thirty-two wagons, and four days' rations for his command. The rest of the Yankee force at that point, ran off, being heroically resolved, like Hooker, to run when they pleased.

The Washington Chronicle, of May 25, informs its readers that the Monitors appointed to take Charleston will attempt the reduction of the outer forts along the beach before they attack Fort Sumter.

THE BULLETIN

BY E. H. BRITTON. TERMS FOR SUBSCRIPTION TRI-WEERLY BULLETIN: OD CATAWRA JOURNAL WEEKLY: For one year......$1.00

SPECIAL ARMY CORRESPONDENCE HEADO'ES MECKLENBURG RANGERS.

Culpeper C. H., Va., May 27, 1863. Dear Bulletin : Among the mountains of Virginia-s place we had not expected to see so soon we are now with Gen. Stewart; going, as report says, to feast on apple butter and such other things as are palatable to a Dutchman. We may go as far as --to pay a visit to some of those beautiful young ladies that we have seen perambulating the streets. There is quite a large force here to start with, and everything is in readiness.

The country through which we passed from Richmond to this point is beautiful; the scenery grand; the desolation and destruction gloomy. The large clover and erass fields which spread open before us resemble much the green fields of Tyrrell. A down-easter cannot appreciate the mountain green, but would much preter being down upon the sand plains amusing themselves upon goubers and potatoes. They don't seem to relish the rich milk, &c.; but every one to his liking .-It is one of the finest grazing countries 1 ever seen; a fine wool-growing and dairy region. The people have lost much by not having turned their attention to wool grows I passed over the old battle field of Cedar Run, where Gen. Jackson whipped Gen. Pope. The woods were much broken up with ball and shell. From the appearance of graves, there does not appear to have been many killed on the field. There were many Yankee reminiscences found upon the ground. A man's hand is seen sticking upon a bush perfectly dried and hard, how it came there none can tell. There is no news in this section. The Mecklenburg Rangers are all well.

GOVERNMENT PURCHASING ALL THE SU .- We understand that the Contederate Government Commissary in this city has issued the annexed circular to our merchants:

Dear Sir : The sugar you have on hand Confederate States, and for which I will pay you seventy five cents per pound for good sugar, and proportionate prices for other grades. This is the price established by the Commissioners appointed under the provisions of the "Impressment Bill." If cial reference of the case shall be made to the Commissioners. You are therefore hereby notified to hold said sugar subject to my order, or rather not to remove it till the Commissioners may decide the price to be paid you. This notice applies to all sugar in your possession, whether your own or held by you for others. You are requested to furnish me with a statement in full of the augars in your possession, giving marks, description of packages, and by whom owned. We are informed that Capt. Howell, the zentlemanly officer who has charge of the usiness in this section, wishes to have everything pass off quietly and agreeably to all parties, and does not intend to search any premises, unless compelled to do so. We are also informed that no sugars will be permitted to leave the city, and that all premises suspected of having sugar in them, not returned "according to above eircular." will be entered "according to law" and searched -Augusta Chronicle & Sentinel.

Too FREE .- We have been requested to allude to the excessive indulgences allowed to the colored people in our city. It is not uncommon to see them dashing about town in fine carriages, in direct violation of a city erdinance; and balls, parties and pic-nics are every day pastimes with them. Several parties have been permitted to go up the canal, where they had their dinner at the place prepared by the whites for such festivities, and danced at the platform used the day after by their masters and mistresses. These negro gatherings are usually gotton up by the fancy colored retugees, male and female, from Charleston and Savannah, who at home enjoy virtual freedom, and exert there or here a most pernicious influence. It would be better for the country if Lincoln had them than that they be allowed so many liberties. and to contaminate those less idle and licentious than themselves.

The propensity to wear fine clothes has also become an epidemic among our slaves. The best dressed people in town are the strutting valets and swelling chambermaids. There ought to be some regulation by which they shall be shorn of their fine teathers, or at least prevented from sporting them so continually in idle and vicious pastimes. Such habits are calenlated to make thieves of those having no other means of indulging the favorite negro propensity to awall .- Augusta Chronicle & Sentinel.

A very curious chemical discovery has been made by Dissenbacher, a young German chemist. By the addition of a small quantity of chlorine or jodine, pure sulphur is rendered perfectly soft; and the retirement, and seclusion from all public Paris Academy, to whom the experiment matters, will, to the minds of all proper was exhibited by H. Deville, were satenished to see a thin leat of sulphur treated as Antible as if made of wax.

CHARLOTTE.

Tuesday Morning, June 2, 1963, Vollandigham's First Speech,

It appears, by our Western exchanges, that on the approach of the Hon. C. L. Vallandigham to our pickets, after he had been left by his Yankee guard he made a speech to one of our sentinels-a very short ech,-which we copy as follows:

"Soldier! I am a citizen of the United "States with which you are at war; I am "loyal to my country, and am therefore an "enemy; I claim to be treated as a prise

In the above speech Mr. Vallandigham has taken proper position. He has checkmated Seward, and erected a barrier which Lincoln & Co. will not be able to remove. He is a prisoner, but we express the hope and opinion that our Government will treat him as he deserves, being a persecuted and unfortunate citizen of a country with which we are at war ..

Let there be no public demonstration in his favor, but let every true Southern gentleman regard and treat him as a guest, without any ostentatious display or invitations to speechify.

He is a trump card in our hand, and we have no doubt he will serve our purposes admirably with uncle Jeff.

Force of the Yankees.
The Wilmington Journal states that there is reason to believe, from intercepted letters and from information derived from other sources, that the enemy's force at or near Newbern, at any rate under Foster's immediate control, is larger than had been generally supposed, amounting as one letter states, to thirty-one regiments. How full these regiments are we cannot of course say, but if we put them down at an average of nearly five hundred, we have a force of some fifteen thousand. There is enough in this fact, as well as in some other demonetrations by the enemy in this State, to put all upon their guard, and to admonish us that our defence against an attack either by sea or land should be vigorously pressed forward.

From Tennessee.

One of our citizens, who has just returned from Tennessee, says the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel, gives us a lavora ble account of matters and things in that State. The condition of the army, physically and morally, was never better. The men are in good health and exuberant spirits, and anxious to relieve the monotony of camp life by a dash upon the enemy's lines. Whether there was likely to be a fight there soon, of course our informant

The crops are bountiful, and if not destroyed by the accidents of war, will give the people a great abundance of supplies. The wheat crop is splendid.

Our friend was present when Valle lines, about nine miles above Shelbyville. and there left. As is well known, he was afterwards permitted to come to Shelbyville between eight and nine o'clock that night. Rooms were engaged for him at that place by Gen. Bragg's orders. There was some excitement, but not much of a crowd, and no particular demonstrations of any kind. At one point, as he passed a Kentucky regiment, he was loudly called on for a speech, but he declined, saying his lies were sealed. Some thought he. would be lionized, while others took the Eighteen Yankee prisoners were brought into Chattanooga while our informant was there, who were captured by the gallant General Morgan, in his recent dashing raid. They were a hard looking set-hatless, shoeless and dirty.

Arrival of Vallandigham. The Shelbyville correspondent of the Chattanooga Rebel gives the following account of the arrival of Vallandigham in our

SHELBYVILLE, May 25 .-- Mr. Vallandigham has just arrived. He was brought to our lines by flag of truce, but the commander of the outposts refused to recognize it for any such purposes as a claim of right to send any one through our lines by authority. The Federals becoming alarmed. retired leaving Mr. Vallandigham with his baggage upon neutral ground. When our officers approached him he proposed delivering himself as a prisoner of war. This was declined, inasmuch as he was not a soldier in the service of the United States. Upon learning his name and situation he was, however, received as an exile banished from his State, and as any foreigner, seek. ing a refuge or banished from his home for poinion sake. He was then received by Gen. Martin and escorted to his headquarters without any demonstration. There he was received by Col. J. Stoddard Johnston of Gen. Bragg's staff, and by him conveyed in a carriage to Shelbyville, where comfortable quarters were provided. There was in the whole no demonstration, but everywhere, as he passed the troops who had heard of his coming, they greeted him kindly and with si'ent tokens of sympathy

Mr. Vallandigham is cheerful, and seem to breathe freer on escaping from the Lincoln despotism. He very properly desires to avoid all public demonstration, and only asks that he may find a quiet refuge in our midet, until such time as the voice of his people, relieved from despotic influence shall call him again to their midet. He seems fully to realize the embarrassment of his position, and will, beyond doubt, be equal to its responsibilities. A dignified persone, as doubtless his own, he the best course for him to pursue. In stature, Mr. Vallandigham is about | board taken prisoners, five feet eleven inches. with dark hair and slight whickers extending under the chin. but no moustache. His expression is very agreeable, and his manners affable and pleasant, in fact, attractive while not ob-

A Question. N'Importe, a correspondent of the Savannah Republican, says :

There is a mooted question now concern ing the rank of the highest grade of Confederate officers. An item which recently went the rounds of the press, giving the confirmation of full Generals, failed to give that of General Braxton Bragg. From this many supposed that the Senate had failed to comfirm him. This is an error. He was appointed the day after the battle of Shiloh, and confirmed at once, being the first full General confirmed by the Permanent Government.

Generals Cooper, Lee, Johnston, Beau. regard, &c., were first appointed and confirmed by the Provisional Government, and were consequently obliged to be reappointed and confirmed by the Permanent Government, afterwards, and therefore their appointments were made after Bragg's giving the later the semiority, as is now claimed, making him the ranking General of the service. The question has not been raised until recently, though it is said the President discovered the singular discrepancy some time ago and kept it quiet for prudervial reasons; yet since the investigation of the matter it is believed in official circles that he matitains that Bragg is the senior officer. In the meantime, things go on as usual, each officer acting as heretofore, according to his supposed rank, and Gen. Bragg patriotically refusing to claim his undoubted privileges, and for the benefit of the service continuing to command the army which he has so well organized, disciplined and controlled.

1 1 Vankee Letters.

A large -batch of Yankee letter, were picked up on the battle field and taken from Yankee prisoners in Virginia. They are very monutonous-most of them from women. All of them are exceedingly urgent upon the men to come home. Many of them ask for money-$10 being the sum generally needed. Many of them are addressed to men whose time is nearly out, and they are very pious in their prayers that these men may come home before Hooker advances. Execuation of the war is a general sentiment and despair of ever conquering the wretched rebels is another, almost as frequent in these practical epistles. One woman asks "Joe" to be more saving, not to spend his money with speculators and camp tollowers, but Notes which bear date prior to the 1st of the Deput or storage will be charged upon hem.

A. H. MARTIN, to send more home to support his family. December, 1862, and that they will not Another complains bitterly that her husband expected her to make $2 per week She retorts by telling him he ought to send more money home than he had sent.

The letters also disclose a growing disgust for the war. One of the writers stops amid her caresses, and addresses her lover in these words :

"Now, I am going to talk in earnest and a way that I never talked before. I am dow on the infernal Abolitionists! The poor black-hearted beasts, if I had old Abe Lincoln, the old son of a-you know what-I would hang him like a dog. want you to leave that mees of nigger overs and come home. I am a turncoat. and I am glad to think that I have got sense enough to turn."

Another writing from Ohio, to "Dear Brother" in the army, tells him.

"The Democrats are determined not to go to fight for the niggers. enough of the blacks here now. The Republicans about here hang down their heads. They see the Democrats gaining so fast that they are beat so bad they can hardly speak. I see a piece in the paper to-day that the President says that if the war is not further ahead in three months than it is now, he will withdraw his troops and let the South go."

Taking these letters as samples, there is certainly no excessive amount of felicity among the people of the North at this time. Neither does the portion of the community that has to'do the fighting relieb this war much.

A SAD VIOLATION OF MILITARY REGU LATIONS-Headquarters Department o Cumberland, April 17th, 1863 .- GENERAL: The General commanding directs me to call your attention to a flagrant outrage committed in your command, a person having been admitted inside your lines without a pass and in violation of orders. The case is one which calls for your personal attention, and the General command ing directs that you deal with the offending party, or parties, according to law.

The medical director reports that an Orderly Sergeant in Brigadier General -'s division was to-day delivered of a baby, which is in violation of all military law, and of the army regulations. No such case has been known since the days of Jupiter.

You will apply the proper punishment in this case, and a remedy to prevent a repetition of the act.

The above is a copy of a genuine letter emanating from the headquarters of that rigid disciplinarian, Gen. Rosencrantz.

THE FLYING DUTCHMEN .- It is stated that "leading politicians are at Washing. ton to remonstrate against the publications reflecting upon the Eleventh Army Corps as hurtful to the loyal German population."

The Nashville Dispatch, of the 5th ult. says the steamer M. V. Paird, which went up the Cumberland a week ago, was sunk by a party of Confederates, and all on

CHANGING THE BASE .- A Northern paper gets off the following good hit : One day recently, a Sergeant, belonging to one of the Dutch regiments of Illinois called at the transportation office in Colum-bus, Ky., having with him a squad of men. Doffing his hat, and approaching the desk with all the red tape politeness of an expert "orderly," he immediately opens out : "Ish you de dranspordation office !" "Yes, sir, we furnish transportation. Where do you wish to go ?" "Vell. by jinks, I vonts some dransportation and ration." Yes, sir; but who are you?" "Who bees I ?" "Yes, who the devil are you ?" "I ish a recrooting offiser, and I vonce had twelve recroots, but six of te tam phoole change der base-dat's vot de matter ish, and I vonts dransportation and ration rite off before de base change some

souri. It says: In addition to the taking of McNeil by Quantrell, the Confederate partisan, we also learn that Pilot Knob has been taken by the Missouri Confederates, and that our troops are having affairs pretty much their own way in that State. A Confederate officer, who has been out as a scout in Missouri during this spring, also informs us that the Union families have all left that State for other settles ments, either in Oregon or to the East. The State is now in the hands of the Confederates, with the exception of points garrisoned by Lincoln soldiers, and St.

BLACKBERRY WINE .- The following is said to be an excellent recipe for the manufacture of superior wine from blackber-

Measure your berries and bruise them to every gallon adding one quart of boiling water; let the mixture stand twentyfour hours; stirring occasionally; then strain off the liquor into a cask, to every gallon adding one or two pounds of sugar; cork tight, and let stand till following Ocober, and you will have wine ready for use, without any further straining or boiling, that will make lips smack as they ever smacked under similar influence be-

ears in the Richmond papers: "BANK NOTICE. - The Banks of this city have resolved, in consideration that they are not fundable from and after the first of August next, that they will decline to repay out any such notes, nor use-them in settling balances, from and after the 5th
